Sunday 11th January 2026
Baptism of Christ

Today we celebrate the Baptism of Christ alongside the baptism of Julia, joining a story that stretches from the waters of the Jordan to the font in St Aidan's today. Jesus begins his ministry by showing us what a life shaped by God looks like, inviting us not only to hear his words but to do this — to live as he lived. In the waters of Baptism we discover new life, a renewed purpose, and the grace to walk in Jesus' footsteps on the road that leads to life. Today we pray for Julia as she begins her journey of faith, for her godparents, and for Hannah, Caleb, and Evelyn, as they help her grow into the fullness of that calling.

Isaiah 42. 1 – 9

Here is my servant, whom I uphold,
my chosen, in whom my soul delights;
I have put my spirit upon him;
he will bring forth justice to the nations.

<sup>2</sup> He will not cry or lift up his voice,
or make it heard in the street;

<sup>3</sup> a bruised reed he will not break,
and a dimly burning wick he will not quench;
he will faithfully bring forth justice.

<sup>4</sup> He will not grow faint or be crushed
until he has established justice in the earth;
and the coastlands wait for his teaching.

<sup>5</sup> Thus says God, the LORD,
who created the heavens and stretched them out,
who spread out the earth and what comes from it,
who gives breath to the people upon it
and spirit to those who walk in it:

<sup>6</sup> I am the LORD, I have called you in righteousness,
I have taken you by the hand and kept you;
I have given you as a covenant to the people,
a light to the nations,

<sup>7</sup> to open the eyes that are blind,
to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,
from the prison those who sit in darkness.

<sup>8</sup>I am the LORD, that is my name;
my glory I give to no other,
nor my praise to idols.
<sup>9</sup>See, the former things have come to pass,
and new things I now declare;
before they spring forth,
I tell you of them.

Matthew 3. 13 – 17

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, 'I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?' But Jesus answered him, 'Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfil all righteousness.' Then he consented. And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.'

Living on God's good earth: January

New year, new you

The new year is often a time when we feel pressure to make a new start, or try new things, but it can be hard to know where to begin. If you've never done a personal carbon footprint audit, this can be a great way to think about different areas of your life and see where simple changes can make a difference. The results can help you pick one area to focus on over the coming year. There are lots of carbon footprint audits available online, but a nice simple option is <https://footprint.wwf.org.uk>. If you want one with more detail, go for <https://www.climatestewards.org/offset>.
